HYMN [NH&WS 163]

during which a collection is taken

Lord, for the years your love has kept and guided, urged and inspired us, cheered us on our way, sought us and saved us, pardoned and provided:
Lord for the years, we bring our thanks today.

Lord, for that word,
the word of life which fires us,
speaks to our hearts and sets our souls ablaze, teaches and trains, rebukes us and inspires us
Lord of the word, receive your people's praise.

Lord, for our land in this our generation, spirits oppressed by pleasure, wealth and care:
for young and old, for commonwealth and nation,
Lord of our land, be pleased to hear our prayer.

Lord, for our world where men disown and doubt you,
loveless in strength, and comfortless in pain,
hungry and helpless, lost indeed without you:
Lord of the world, we pray that Christ may reign.

Lord for ourselves; in living power remake usself on the cross, and Christ upon the throne, past put behind us, for the future take us:
Lord of our lives, to live for Christ alone.

BLESSING

Stand THE NATIONAL ANTHEM:
All God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God save the Queen.
Send her victorious,
happy and glorious,
long to reign over us:
God save the Queen.

Choir only Nor in this land alone – but be God's mercies known from shore to shore.
Lord make the nations see that all should brothers be and form one family
the wide world o'er.

All Thy choicest gifts in store on her be pleased to pour, long may she reign.
May she defend our laws,
and ever give us cause
to sing with heart and voice,
God save the Queen.

INTRODUCTION by Canon Glynn Richerby, Vicar

HYMN [A&M 207]

Praise to the Lord,
the almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
come ye who hear,
brothers and sisters draw near,
praise him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
shelters thee under his wings,
yea, so gently sustaineth:
hast thou not seen
all that is needful hath been granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work, and defend thee;
surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
ponder anew all the almighty can do,
he who with love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord!
O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the amen sound from his people again:
gladly for ay we adore him.

REMEMBERING

The procession moves to mid-nave to face the Memorial

Vicar We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow
those whose lives,
in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

The names of those recorded on the War Memorial are read

HOMAGE

Julia Walker, Churchwarden, says:

They shall grow not old
as we that are left grow old:
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.

Alex Coles, Head Chorister, replies:

At the going down of the sun and in the morning
we will remember them.

All

We will remember them.

We join BBC Radio 4.
The congregation then sits until Big Ben strikes.

At the first strike of Big Ben, all stand for

THE SILENCE

The Last Post and the Reveille are sounded.

THE LAYING OF THE WREATH

Vicar Ever-living God,
we remember those whom you have gathered from the storm of war
into the peace of your presence
May that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

HYMN [A&M 99 omit verse 5]

Choir, churchwardens and wreath layer return to their places

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home;

beneath the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last,
and our eternal home.

THE WORD OF GOD

Sit READING
The Revelation to St John the Divine ¶ 21.1 – 5
read by Michael Bull MBE

Stand
HYMN [A&M 176 t. 'Binchester']

Happy are they, they that love God whose hearts have Christ confessed, who by his cross have found their life,
and 'neath his yoke their rest.

Glad is the praise, sweet are the songs,
when they together sing;
and strong the prayers that bow the ear of heaven's eternal King.

Christ to their homes giveth his peace,
and makes their loves his own:
but ah, what tares the evil one hath in his garden sown!

Sad were our lot, evil this earth, did not its sorrows prove the path whereby the sheep may find the fold of Jesus' love.

Then shall they know, they that love him, how all their pain is good;
and death itself cannot unbind their happy brotherhood.

COMING HOME
