

08/42

PARISH LUNCH About 80 members of the congregation and friends enjoyed a delicious three-course lunch at Devonshire Place on Sunday last. Afterwards, they received an illustrated presentation of practical and financial progress so far with the Disabled Access project. Also, a raffle raised £400 towards the appeal. A good time was had by all! Our hearty thanks to Tony Rudge for his organisation.

ASHMAN MUSIC ROOM The recently refurbished choir vestry, also known as the small hall, is to be renamed, partly in recognition of its key role in the Church's music-making and also in commemoration of Harry Ashman's legacy. This originally funded the purchase of 1 Dixon Drive, which was used to accommodate former curates and others, before its sale provided funds to back the current improvements being made to the Church premises.

BRIDGE DRIVE at 14.00 on Wednesday 29 October at Brookfield Bowling Club. If anyone can donate a prize, Derek Hole (Tel: 270 9988) is willing to collect. HELP IN SERVING TEAS (ALREADY PREPARED) ALSO NEEDED.

'A TORCELLO INSPIRED CHURCH?' Alan McWhirr will give an illustrated talk on Thursday 30 October at 19.00 for 19.30, followed by a tour of the Church on Saturday 1 November at 10.00. (Disabled Access Appeal)

'A SPIRITUALITY FOR THE 21st CENTURY' is the theme of the Bishop's Lay Congress at the Samworth Academy on Saturday 15 November. All members of the congregation, especially young people, are welcome to enrol – see the back of the Church for further details.
