A NEW BELL ROPE hangs at the back of the church. The previous rope – which probably dated back to the completion of the west end of the church in 1914 – broke some while ago. A new rope had to be specially ordered, as it needed to be extra long to reach high up to the bell chamber. The ‘sally’ – the soft section that is held at the end of the rope – has the Leicester Tigers’ three colours woven into it, for a bit of fun! This replacement rope and sally was paid for anonymously by someone who very much missed the tolling of the bell before services. Our thanks to David Brunning for splicing in the new rope.

SOMETHING EXTRA FOR LENT? What about a book? Books from Henry Evans’ library are available on loan again this year. Look on the small table at the back of Church.

Almighty God,

you show to those who are in error the light of your truth,
that they may return to the way of righteousness:
grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ’s religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same;
through our Lord Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
