EDNA HASWELL Friends of Edna will like to know that she died peacefully on 3 January, in hospital at Weston-super-Mare, where she was spending Christmas with her son, Ken. The funeral will take place there on Wednesday 26 January and a Memorial Service will be held here at 11.00 am on Friday 28 January. Edna will be fondly remembered, particularly by those who regularly attend the Thursday morning Holy Communion and the Coffee Drop-In.

THE EDGE YOUTH WORK PROJECT Copies of Ali Simpson's January 2011 Report is available at the back of the Church. Ali, who preached at St James' last October, has just completed the second of five years of detached youth work in the Saffron Lane area. This was commissioned by the member churches of the Southern Edge Mission Partnership, including St James the Greater.

'MY FAITH' Baroness Warsi will deliver the 2011 Sir Sigmund Sternberg Lecture in the Rattray Lecture Theatre, University of Leicester, at 5.30 pm on Thursday 20 January. Sayeeda Warsi is a Cabinet Minister and Chairman of the Conservative Party. For more information and free admission by ticket only, e-mail myfaith@le.ac.uk

GREETINGS CARDS created by Polly Taylor are on sale TODAY and will be available after both services on Sunday next, 23 January. This time, Polly is raising funds for Talking Books for Children, a charity that provides materials for children who are themselves visually impaired or whose parents are unable to read to them. The policeman blinded in a gunman's attack last year has said that one of his major regrets is being unable to read bedtime stories to his children: by the time he is proficient in Braille, they will have outgrown that particular pleasure.

BEST CHORAL MOMENT according to Ivan Hewett in his Music Review of the year (The Daily Telegraph, Saturday December 11, 2010):
'That excellent choir, The Sixteen, sang great, craggy, rarely heard monuments of Tudor sacred choral music at St James the Greater, Leicester on April 15.'
The Sixteen is to return to St James the Greater on Thursday 5 May 2011. Tickets are available NOW: booking forms at the back of the Church.

in Christ you make all things new:
transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace,
