Prayer for the Week

Almighty and eternal God, you have kindled the flame of love in the hearts of the saints:
grant to us the same faith and power of love,
that, as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may be sustained by their example and fellowship;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

18.30 All Souls' Requiem

see Order of Service

Officiant: The Reverend Canon Glynn Richerby, Vicar Churchwardens: Graham Jagger and Will Warner Sidesmen: Chris Geere, John Sharp and Owen Shepherd Servers: Peter Ireson, Hazel Carlin and April Burton

THE REQUIEM to be held here this evening is intended to meet the needs of all who have been bereaved – especially in the last twelve months. It also helps all of us who have been distressed by news reports of those who have died or been bereaved through violence or natural disasters.

The beginning of an understanding of the mystery of our precarious existence in this fleeting world lies hidden in the liturgy of the Mass for the Dead as well as in the musical setting of Gabriel Fauré. The great entreaty to God at the heart of the Requiem is not a demand for an easy explanation, but an eloquent and heartfelt plea for mercy and peace. And that ought to tell us where, in the midst of great grief and sorrow, the real human need arises.

Requiem æternam dona eis, Domine (Grant them eternal rest, O Lord)
